Testimonies from FIFA World Cup Bible Distribution

“One of my highlights was seeing a newly saved sister participate in the Bible distribution. Although she has only been saved for 6 months, she handed out many Bibles. This is a wonderful testimony of a new believer growing into her organic function.”

“I was really touched and encouraged to see that the young people and the next generation are willing to rise up to serve. The younger saints in my team considered me in the practical matters to care for me because I am older. I was very cherished by the saints caring for my needs and appreciated the time to blend.”

“[Preaching the gospel] shouldn’t just be during the FIFA World Cup; it should be our Christian life. The more you do it, the more you want to do it and you see that people really want it. It’s possible to do even after the Lord’s Day meetings.”

“A girl wearing headphones walked by our station. When we offered her a free Bible, she stopped and asked, ‘What did you say?’ After receiving the Bible, she said, ‘This is crazy. I have just been exploring God.’ I showed her Hebrews 12:2, the verse we enjoyed during the morning pursuit. I told her that the Christian life is not about improving ourselves, but about looking away unto the Lord Jesus. Then, she prayed to receive the Lord!”

“We met a couple who lived just down the street from where we were distributing. They told us that they saw another group a couple blocks away and didn’t receive a Bible from them. We had a meaningful conversation about our tripartite being by reading 1 Thessalonians 5:23 and explaining how God’s economy is to dispense Himself into our spirit and spread throughout our being to be expressed through man. They had never heard of God’s economy before and ended up taking the Bible and a copy of The Economy of God.”

Testimonies from FIFA World Cup Bible Distribution

“At first I asked this young man if he would like a Bible and he said, “Oh, I already have one.” So I asked him which one and he said the King James version. I said, “Oh, wow so you've read the Bible?” And he said, “Well, kind of... I only have a little knowledge.” As we were talking, I showed him some verses and footnotes and cross references, which he found quite helpful. His background was a mix of Catholic Arab and orthodox. He wasn't quite sure if he was saved so he prayed the prayer on the track with me to be saved. He was very intrigued, but not willing to leave his contact information.”

“At the CN Tower today, I met a Christian family from Saskatchewan. The sister was very much interested in seeing the features of the Bible. I asked if she had a favorite verse and she said she liked the book of John so we read 10:10-11. She read the footnotes on ‘life’ in both verses and was beside herself with joy and amazement, repeating “Wow, wow, this is wonderful, I would have never seen or known that. It’s just life in English”. She thought this was a really good Bible that she would like to read more. May the Lord continue to unveil our sister and reveal His word to her!”

“There was a student from Montreal who was on exchange for 5 weeks in Vancouver. She was very simple and willing to hear about the Recovery Version Bible. I read some verses with her and even prayed with her. She prayed to receive the Lord and joined the Lord’s table meeting in Vancouver the next day. May the Lord keep this one open to Him!”

“There were some people passing by, saying they received our Bible the week before. Some of them have started to read it, so we were very encouraged!”

Post FIFA Bible Distribution

One of the burdens for the Bible distribution during the FIFA World Cup was that the saints would have a taste of sharing the gospel and the word and be inspired for a gospel living. Since the World Cup, we have seen an increased number of Bible distributions across the country. The saints have been experimenting and exploring different ways to contact people and distribute Bibles!

BfC website update/replacement

- We look to increase our online presence this year.
- We expect an increase in our online orders when the saints will go out during the FIFA World Cup and through our Social media strategy. Therefore we will need a new, revamped and more robust website.

Second distribution center in the East

- With the expected increase of online orders this year, we are looking to offload some burden from our current distribution center in the West.
 - With the setting up of a second distribution center in the East, we will also decrease the shipping expenses to shipments to the east of Canada.

Prayer Burden

- Pray for all the fellowship & coordination among the serving saints that there be the oneness and one accord that would invite the Lord's blessing.
- Pray for the Lord to thrust out the workers to the field through more saints signing up to participate in the Bible distribution during the World Cup.
- Pray for the people's hearts to be soft and open to the gospel and word of God.
